There's a string of mysterious disappearances in the Scottish town of Windy Creek. First it was a girl, but the police think it's just a case of a teenager running away from home. Then it was a boy, the founder of the local UFO club, after which huge crop circles start appearing near the town. But Lisa Wolf isn't satisfied with the obvious explanations. Ignoring her police inspector uncle, who says she should keep her nose out of police business, Lisa and her friend Marius investigate.

A British setting and a pair of cocky young detectives who do things their own way. Carefully crafted crimes, and an investigation based on brilliant deductions and intuition. Plus the right balance of suspects and red herrings before all the strands finally come together!

MY FRIEND THE PRINCE.

A STORY INSPIRED BY THE LITTLE PRINCE

Full of whisker-twitching enthusiasm, Geronimo is working on a big project! With his friends, he wants to stage a musical inspired by The Little Prince, the famous book by Saint-Exupéry. His friends, though, turn out to be less than cooperative. Geronimo does his best to motivate them but, after a long, tiring day, he falls asleep on the stage. The moment he closes his eyes, a young mouse with blond hair and big blue eyes appears before him. It's the Little Prince himself with his friend the fox. The fox is holding the prince's rose between his paws, but it's withered. He asks Geronimo to help restore its strength and color. So begins a fantastic journey in which Geronimo introduces the Little Prince to his friends, each of whom has just the right words to heal the withered rose. And, when he wakes up, Geronimo is in for a wonderful surprise!

GERONIMO VS. THEA

There's a big scoop in the air at the Rodent's Gazette, and Grandpa Shortpaws has to decide who'll report the story. Who's the best journalist? Geronimo (the paper's clumsy, cowardly editor) or his sister Thea (that feisty newshound)? Of course he chooses Thea, but, as editor, Geronimo pulls rank. And so begins a challenge between brother and sister to get the scoop of the year. Geronimo and Thea take turns telling the story, each one with their own voice and point of view, in a crescendo of laughs and plot twists that lead to the surprising grand finale!

A challenge between the Stilton siblings ... Who'll win?
